Online portal for the manufacturing industry

With the online portal IndustryArena you will find the best preconditions to optimize your contacts, generate leads and place your presence effectively in your target audience. Already in 2001, the current IndustryArena GmbH founded an online forum for manufacturing (in the first years under the domain CNC-Arena.com) and is now with more than 525,000 registered members the leading specialist portal for the manufacturing industry. We support more than 5,050 manufacturers from the manufacturing industry with their online presentation in the target group market.

Our services consist of three areas

We are a full service agency, with three areas at our core: Service agency for digital communication in the industry, consulting agency for social media and publisher for digital publications.

Topic channels at a glance

Numerous information and research options, and we guarantee intensive and communicative solutions.

Our forum is an essential part of our B2B platform. The forums are focused on the expertise and dialogue of the expert community.

Expert community
Our community consists of users and decision makers from different industries.

Content Related Advertising
With content related advertising you will always reach your target group.

Dialogue
Users and experts from the industry are in daily dialogue.

Topic forums
With your own forum you are in direct contact to your target group.
All prices are subject to VAT and always payable in advance.

*CPM = cost per mille (1,000 Adviews) Ad views = number of visitors with visual contact to your ad

Other banner sizes on request, see page 35 for info about data delivery. We would be pleased to compile effective advertising packages for you with special terms based on your budget. Please do not hesitate to contact us.
Retargeting is a powerful branding and conversion tool. With an IndustryArena retargeting campaign, you can place your banner advertising also beyond our powerful network. With a banner set provided by you, you can reach the users who are researching in the categories you have selected. By linking your campaign, we can find the selected users anywhere online and display your banners (for example Bild.de, FAZ.net, Heise.de). Increase your brand awareness fast and effectively with high visibility.

Increased reach
With our retargeting campaign, you can reach your target group outside the IndustryArena as well.

No scattering losses
Thanks to the customized positioning of your banners, no views are wasted.

Monthly evaluation
We evaluate the success of your campaign and give you reportings on a regular basis.

Do you know your ranking position?
The Social Media Ranking of IndustryArena offers a comparison of the most important companies from the manufacturing industry. The activities of the companies are updated daily.

It needs only one glance to check the top 5 for every network of the social-media-ranking. The weighting of the social networks can be read with the help of concrete graphic arts.

Ranking Charts
The Ranking Charts can be sorted by number of likes, follower and subscriber or trend of the week. The Social-Media-Ranking is available and free of charge to all suppliers of the IndustryArena.
Social media is essential for the promotion of events, products, services or campaigns. Different social media channels must be included. To keep an easy overview, we have a special marketing tool for you.

The Social-Media-Wall gives you an easy overview, which shows posts to special threads or keywords and from different social networks.

The use of the Social-Media-Wall is numerous. During a trade fair, workshop or other event, it can be displayed on a monitor or published on campaign websites.
